RE: Lerin v. Belardo, 16-5703 (RJD)

Dear Judge Dearie:

I represent plaintiff, and follow up in response to the City's letter suggesting adjourning the case into March. I, my client and co-counsel have no problem with this so long as it is not inconvenient to the Court. Again, to deprive us – in my opinion, and certainly me – of the legal experience of a trial before your honor would be unfavorable. Thus if it cannot happen in March or so, I will see to try the case in December. This is a difficult time for me, but I am working and could collect myself for a trial in December, and as my co-counsel reminded me yesterday, she is no longer new to the case and could tke a larger role.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Greg S. Antollino
